How do you wind down after a long day at a trade show?

If you plan on attending this year's SASHTO event, Cyclomedia, a proud annual conference sponsor, has the answer you're looking for! On August 9th, we're hosting a happy hour just after the closing ceremonies and invite you to join us for some fun after the busy week. Come say hi to Cyclomedia representatives Dwayne Wiginton and Jenny Vaughan and enjoy a drink on us!

“We're excited to support SASHTO right here in our home state of Alabama this year! Come by our booth #4 and find out how our solution helps improve safety and efficiency for both the roads and DOT employees.”

— Jenny Vaughan,
Transportation Solutions Engineer

Our Transportation team has participated in 16 consecutive SASHTO events and this is the 2nd consecutive year Cyclomedia has sponsored SASHTO.

Cyclomedia specializes in delivering DOTs the most accurate, complete and detailed roadway inventories in the industry. From physical assets supporting DOT maintenance, asset management, ADA, active transportation and highway safety to the detailed roadway characteristics needed for planning and federal reporting—our advanced data analytics processes can provide it all. Our high resolution, geocoded imagery and mobile LiDAR combined with advanced machine learning and automation ensures that the roadway data is precise and consistent and can be delivered to our customers quickly.
